SATURDAY, MAY 16th

Dexter C. White Memorial 5K Walk/Run
Atlanta City Hall, 68 Mitchell Street, SW
Atlanta, GA 30303, 9:00 am – 12:00 noon

In honor of the late Dexter C. White, Deputy Commissioner of the Department of Public Works, the City of Atlanta will officially kick-off NPWW with a 5K Walk/Run to increase health & wellness and in support of a college scholarship fund of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity a 501(C)3 organization. The 51-year-old Deputy Commissioner served in key governmental roles impacting the field of Public Works. He is credited with improving the City of Atlanta's Solid Waste Services, making its fleet more sustainable and introducing 96-gallon recycling carts in an effort to reduce Atlanta's carbon footprint. He was known nationwide for his overall contributions to Public Policy, Solid Waste Management, and Public Works.
